The Clarinet and Saxophone Society of WA presents

ClariSax Feast 2012

Sunday 17th June 2012, 9am—3pm

University of WA School of Music

CASSWA's fourth annual ClariSax Feast features guest artist saxophonist Amy Dickson, along with fabulous local performers Dr Matt Styles (sax), WASO clarinet trio, Ashley Smith (clarinet), Erin Royer (sax), and ensembles Just Sax and George's Quartet.

Amy Dickson

Join fellow clarinet and saxophone enthusiasts for a day full of workshops, ensemble playing, and performances by fabulous musicians. See product displays from our musical sponsors and mingle with fellow musicians of all ages. There will be opportunities to play (in a friendly and non-threatening group environment!) so make sure to bring your instrument.

Large displays of instruments, accessories & music for sale!

Bring your clarinets and saxophones!

About Amy Dickson

ClariSax Feast is excited to welcome guest artist Amy Dickson in 2012! Born in Sydney, Amy made her concerto debut at the age of 16 before studying at the Royal College of Music and Amsterdam Conservatorium. She won the Symphony Australia Young Performers Award in 2004. In demand as a soloist, she performs and records with orchestras such as the Royal Philharmonic, Philharmonia and London Philharmonic, amongst others. In addition to performing the concertos of Glazunov, Debussy, Villa-Lobos, Ibert, Larsson and Milhaud, she champions contemporary repertoire and regularly commissions new works. Her recordings include the CDs Smile (2008) and Glass – Taverner - Nyman (2009), Carl Davis' score for the film Hotel du Lac, and works by Joseph Holbrooke and Richard Rodney Bennett.

Make sure you arrive on time to benefit from the early-morning guest appearance by saxophone star Amy Dickson!
